We the editors of the '64 Oriole, dedicate our book to Miss Catherine Utz and Miss Katherine Stanford, who have dedicated their lives to assisting young people through school. We can't forget Miss Utz's senior English and benefits from really good teaching, nor can we forget Miss Stanford's willing co-operation helping us to find books and materials in the library.

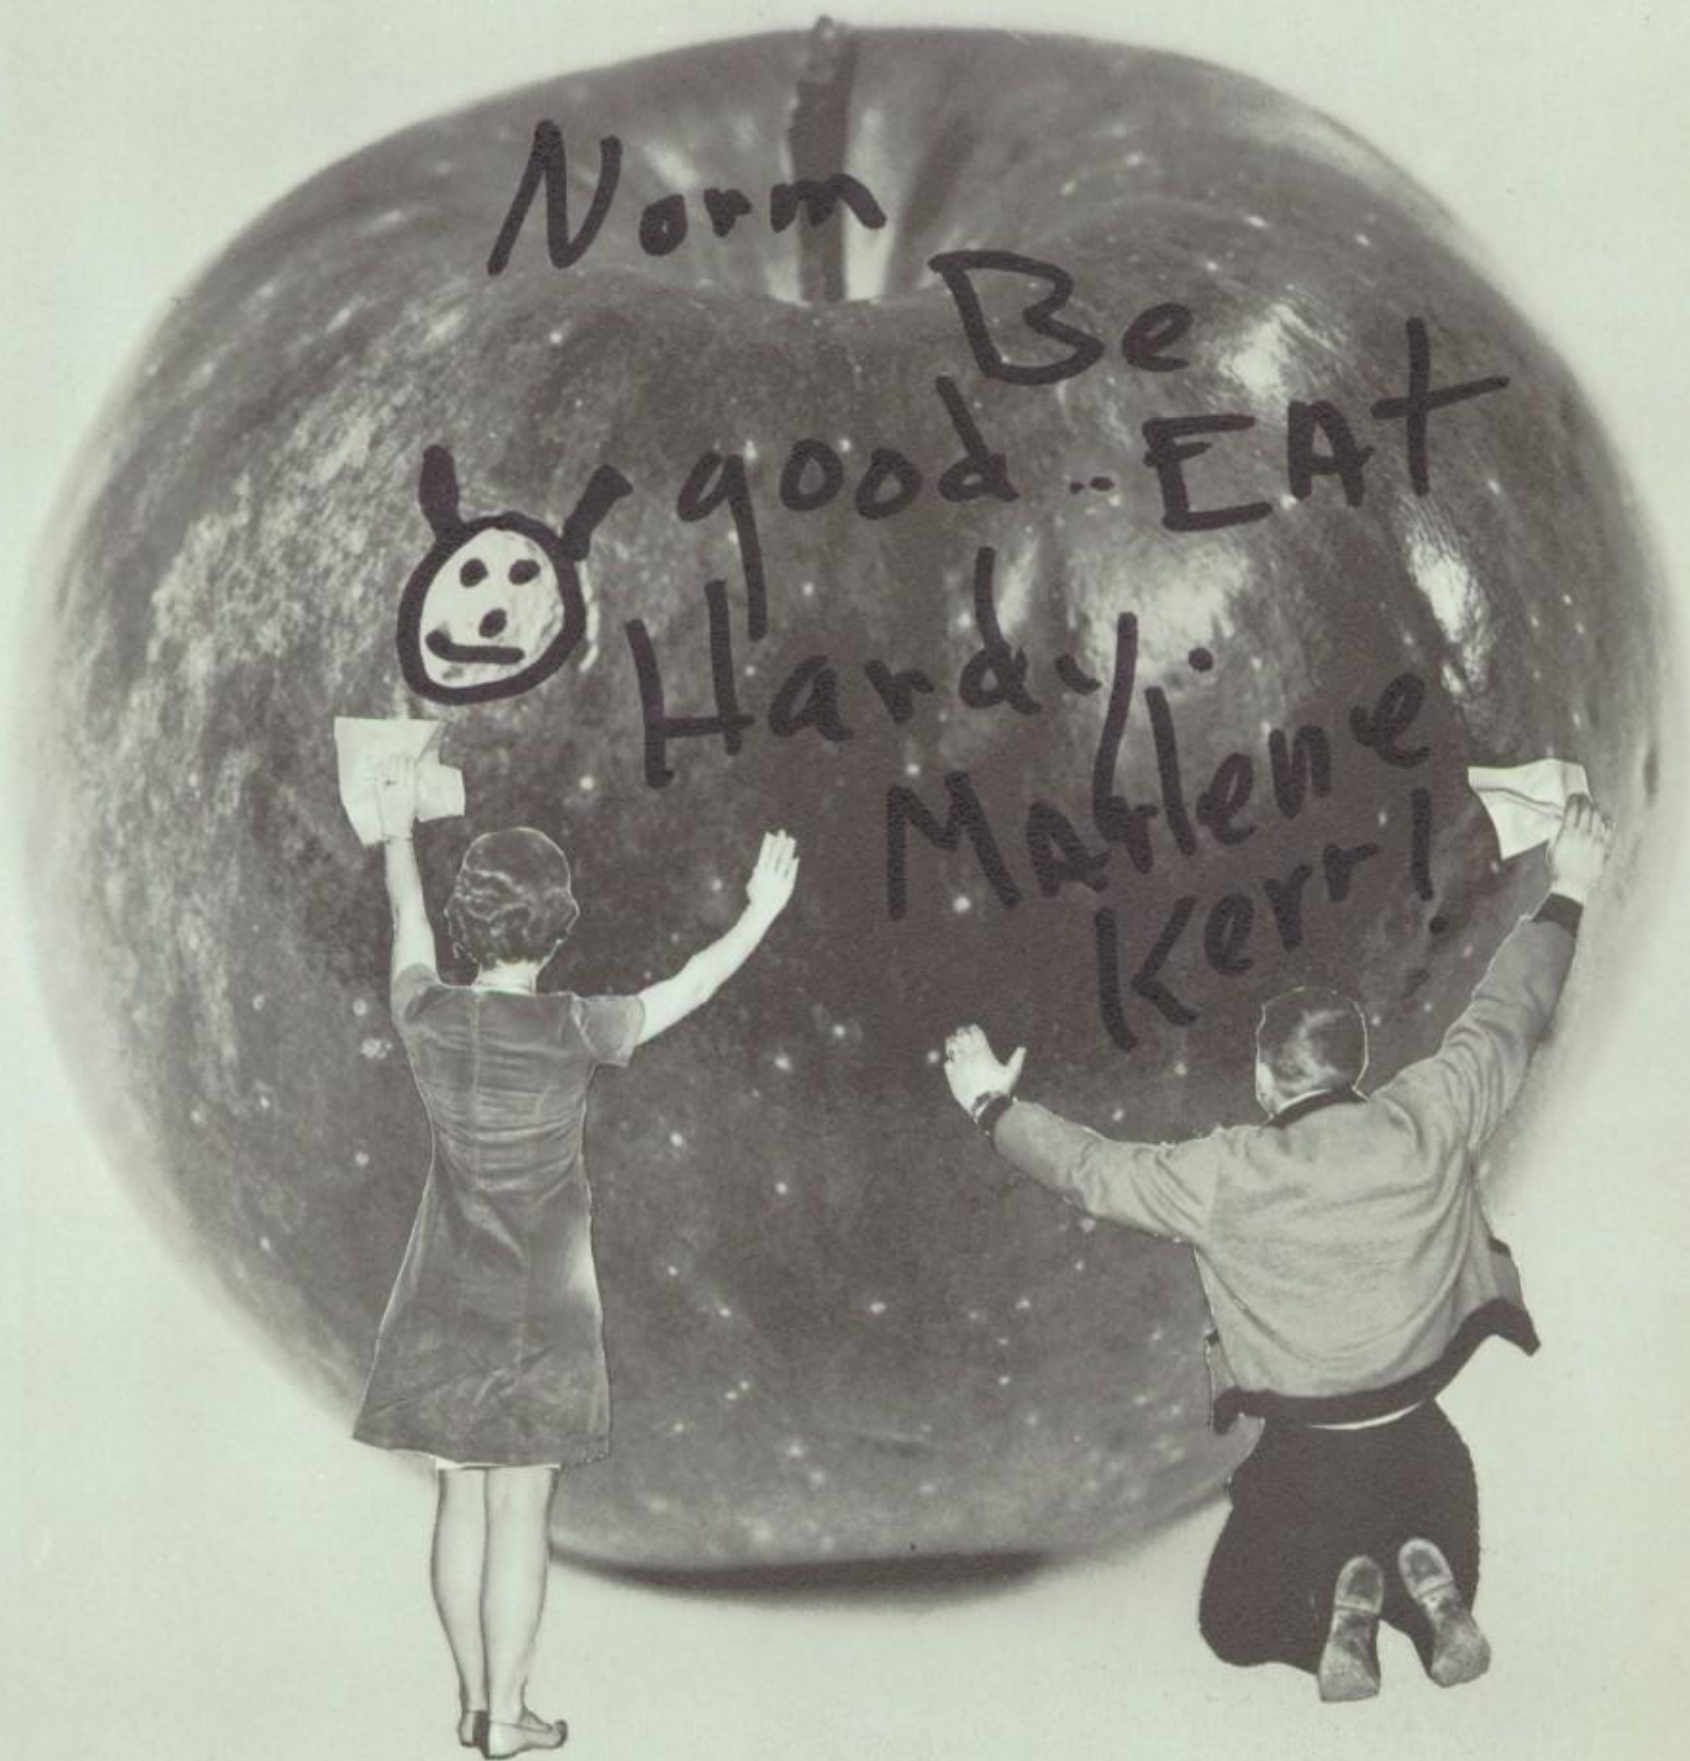

For these simple reasons, we recognize these women, as sincere and truly influential on us and others of past years.

We express deep thanks and respect for their services to Ludington High. Their presence has given the air of dignity, yet with extending courtesy and friendship to the students.

Cooks

Pork pinwheels, hamburgers, and sloppy joes are among the food enjoyed by those who eat in the cafeteria. This food is prepared by the ambitious cooks who try their hardest to please the majority of the students. The state requires the meal to be a certain amount of proteins and be well balanced. Our cooks always manage to take these things into careful consideration and come out with both a delicious tasting and pleasant looking meal, pleasing to the majority of students.

Cooks include Mrs. Ellen Gustafson, Marie Sutter, Dorthea Johnson, and Lauretta Stohr.

Custodians include Mr. Erwin Miller, Dewey Johnson, Ray Walters, Martin Hudy, and Walter Keson.

Custodians

The work of a custodian never ends, for long after the school day comes to a close these custodians can be seen busily sweeping the halls, straightening the desks, and erasing blackboards. Although the custodians routine work seems like a never ending task, they always manage to find time to fix a broken window, leaky pipe, or a broken desk. We all owe a lot to our custodians, for they keep the school looking its best.

Bus Drivers

Every morning the rural students are greeted by the cheery "good morning" from the bus driver who always manages to come through, rain, snow, or shine. The work of the bus driver does not end with his daily route to and from school. He also drives the bus to away games and on band and choir trips.

Bus drivers include Mr. James Cartier, Don Miller, Bud Lunde, Dan Fellows, Kenneth Howell, Paul Hannig, Bink Wallace, Lavona Granger, Mildred Phelps, Irving Fulker, and Dennis Postema.

Dear,

Well here I am at the end of the road. I am glad I'm getting out but believe me it goes just as fast as they say it does. You never get "grouchy" so I know you will have a ball but don't forget about me when I leave. We had a good time working together even when I had to sweep the floor once in a while. If you jump real good and want to come back this summer we will all be happy because we all miss you. If you don't have your letter just keep trying. You'll get it if you desire the best. Keep doing the work that you know

Sports enthusiast, Dick Klopfenstein, is still blowing off steam after an Oriole victory.

Filled with happiness and disappointment, success and failure
hard work and determination
L.H.S. students struggle onward to obtain their ultimate goals in life.
Never faltering
in their steps,
they continue to pyramid
their high school years
with higher learning,
adventure, excitement,
and activities.

What teacher put him to sleep — or is he only thinking.

What could Helen Dennis be so engrossed in? A boyfriend? Gossip? A teacher? Just like Mona Lisa—it's her secret.

What a smile! In her expression Karla Lunde reflects the spirit of L.H.S.'s student body—a spirit of friendship, cheer and goodwill.

Everyone gathers to view the queen and her lovely court.

"Things to Come" was the theme chosen for this years annual Homecoming Dance which climaxed a busy week of fun filled activities. Cheering students staged a snake dance and pep rally at which they eagerly burned Manistee's coffin. Queen Terry Sue and her court led the parade through streets festively decorated for the occasion. To make the grand evening complete the Ludington Orioles won a 31-19 game over the Manistee Chipewas.

Homecoming

For the lovely queen and her court it was a night to be cherished always and for each of the charming couples attending it will be an evening long remembered.

Varsity players throw Manistee's coffin into the flames.

The gymnasium of the new O. J. DeJonge Junior High School was transformed into an excellent dance floor the evening of December 21.

Winter Whirl

Eek! It moves!

The Glen Sullivan orchestra played on and on throughout the evening.

That's all right — go ahead and take two.

"Stairway to Heaven" was the theme of this year's annual formal dance held by Tri-Hi-Y. Two hundred couples enjoyed dancing to the music of Glen Sullivan and his orchestra.

Steps decorated in silver and blue came down from the ceiling of the O. J. DeJonge Junior High School as the "Stairway to Heaven." The walls were decorated with abstract angels. This was the first social affair to be held in the new school.

The entrance was decorated with blue and silver streamers, a lighted sign stating the theme, and a life size angel. The officers of the club and the sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Colvin greeted the couples.

Refreshments consisting of cookies and punch were served throughout the evening.

The 1963 Winter Whirl was enjoyed by all and will long remain a pleasant memory in their life.

G.A.A. officers are Holly Kiyak, Secretary; Christy Harmon, President; Billie Kay Neil, Vice-President; Sherry Hacket, Point Secretary; Marcia Masten, Clerk; Mary Bimba, Clerk; Candy Johnson, Treasurer.

G. A. A. members sign up for a toboggan party.

Encouraging active participation in sports and physical activities, the G.A.A. awards the letter L to girls earning 500 points, and the G.A.A. emblem for 200 points. These are earned through participation in basketball, volleyball, badminton, and honor roll. Points may also be earned for outside activities such as hiking, swimming, and bicycle riding.

This year the girls gave a Mother-Daughter banquet with a talent show and toast to the mothers. A progressive party was enjoyed by the group with the respective dinner courses held at members' homes. New members were brought into the club with the formal and informal initiation.

Christy conducts the meeting.

Pep club officers include — Terry Sue Pavledes, president; Billie Kay Neil, secretary; Linda Schultz, treasurer; and Stella Rodriguez, vice-president.

The promotion of good sportsmanship is the first and foremost objective of the Pep Club. This organization has been a great stimulant to the increased feeling of sportsmanship of L.H.S. students.

Pep Club has promoted the sending of school buses to many of the away games, which accounts for the fact that our teams usually have an excellent cheering section. Also to help promote school spirit, the Pep Club helps to arrange Pep Assemblies, which are very popular with the student body. Members make a large variety of posters that are hung in the lobby each week before the games, and organize the homecoming bonfire.

Pep Club aids its financial status by the selling of programs at basketball games and sponsoring after-game dances, plus many other projects which are undertaken during the year. Mr. Gordon Aho is the current advisor of the club.

Pep Club

Sue and Tom admire one of the pep club posters.

Pep Club members laboriously work on posters which decorate the halls and promote school spirit.

Skits are featured at many pep assemblies.

Future Nurses of America

FNA officers include—Judy Anderson, president; Poulette Johnson, vice-president; Kathryn Smith, secretary; and Lynn Thompsen, treasurer.

Guest speaker Linda Houk tells the girls about nurses training.

Looking into the years ahead, the Future nurses get together to discuss the different aspects of a career in nursing. They enjoy speakers, both professional nurses and student nurses, technicians and other people connected with the health and medical fields.

Each year, the girls take a trip to one of the many hospital-training schools in the state to help them with their choice of schools in the near future. They earn money for these trips through dances, semi-weekly fudge sales and a baked good sale.

Each member receives during her first year of membership, a gold pin, making her a member of the National Future Nurses Association. The second year she receives her pin guard.

The Future Nurses also offer volunteer work to the local hospital, and the Candy-stripers work regularly at the Blood Bank during the year.

FNA members listen intently as Judy conducts the meeting.

Future Farmers of America

Future Farmers of America, under Mr. Ruben Gomez is a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian organization.

The members of the club learn the correct usage of the parliamentary procedures. With this knowledge, the boys participate in contests through-out the state.

In the district contests held in Scottville, the Ludington chapter of FFA received the gold award of first place.

The state contests include dairy judging and land judging. Other contests held through-out the year are leadership contests. These include parliamentary procedure, farm forum, demonstrations and public speaking.

Each year, the boys attend a football game at Michigan State and the state FFA convention.

A new occurrence this year was the election of an FFA queen from the Future Homemakers.

Future Farmers officers are Curtis King, Vice-President; George Forman, President; Fred Engel, Secretary; Sandy Sands, Treasurer; Jim Anthony, Sentinel; Clarence Kistler, Reporter.

Art Club

The main purposes of Art Club is to learn more about art and to kindle a newer, deeper interest in art. Many find relaxation and pleasure participating in the various medias of art.

The meetings consist of a business meeting followed by a program. Guest speakers give demonstrations in oil painting, water color, and sculpturing in addition to movies on the various phases of the fine arts which are presented for the enjoyment of the members.

At Thanksgiving, the members of Art Club make candy favors for the hospital.

Each spring, Art Club sponsors the girl-ask-boy "Sadie Hawkins" dance.

Under the direction of Mr. John Markov, members work diligently sponsoring dances, candy sales, and movies to earn money for the annual trip to Chicago or some other art center.

While in the Windy City, students visit sites of interest pertaining to art either past or present. Included among these sites of interest are Chicago Institute of Art, a design studio, Oriental Institute, and a lecture tour.

Art Club officers are Connie Goosin, President; Jim Hendrickson, Vice-President; Janice Cutler, Secretary; Joyce Ebner, Treasurer

In the fall, the band presented an entertaining variety of half-time shows at Oriole Field. Included in these shows were the annual "Dad's Night", honoring the fathers of the Orioles; and the Homecoming Show, honoring Queen Terry Sue and her court. The Band also traveled to Western Michigan University and Ferris State College to take part in their annual Massed Band Days.

Concert season began in the middle of November with challenging Foremost on the schedule. The first concert of the year was the Christmas "Pop" concert at Hawley Gym. The following Monday and Tuesday found the band at Oriole Hall and St. Simon's Auditoriums, respectively, presenting the annual Christmas Concert at these schools. On February 17th, the band took its annual tour, traveling this year to the Reed City area, presenting concerts for the schools there. Ludington was the site of the '64 Band Festival, where the Varsity and Cadet Bands received their division ratings.

The Solo and Ensemble contest, held at Hart featured students from all the bands. During the spring, the Band traveled to Grand Rapids for a combined concert with Creston High School. As a special trip, since they did not travel to Detroit this year, the Band traveled to Illinois for a concert tour to two schools.

F. T. A.

FTA officers include — Audrey Robertson, president; Jeanne Gillette, treasurer; Ann Delavergne, secretary and Gary Anderson, vice-president.

The main purpose of the Future Teachers of America Club is to encourage high school students in the teaching profession.

Under the cadet teaching program, members assume the responsibility of teaching an elementary class of their choice in the Ludington School system for one hour a day. Thus the future teacher gains experience while deciding whether or not there is a place for him in the field of education.

The Future Teachers also have a chance to visit and talk with the student teachers sent from colleges and hear and see guest speakers and films on teaching techniques and qualifications of a good teacher. The F.T.A. always keeps in mind the importance of the educating system of our future years to come.

Library Club

The L. H. S. Library Club, which is limited to members taking Library Science, is a member of the Student Library Association of Michigan. Its main goal is to promote a greater knowledge of library functions.

The members of this service club work in the library one period a day and learn to run an efficient library by checking out books, shelving them, mending torn volumes, and by helping their fellow students locate books and other reference material.

Library Club has been in existence for approximately 15 years. Its present sponsor is Miss Katherine Stanford, head librarian.

Library Club officers include—Janice Lake, president; Barbara Boswell, secretary; Joan Lake, treasurer and Linda Loft, vice-president.

Mr. Nuckolls, Mr. Markov, and Mr. Dewey help themselves to the refreshments.

At the beginning of the school year Library Club sponsored a tea honoring teachers and student teachers.

Varsity Club officers: Butch Evans, president; Pat Luke, Vice-President (recognized by the cast); Steve Hill, Treasurer (still on crutches).

Varsity Club

Varsity Club consists of boys who have earned a letter in a varsity sport or in varsity team management. During the course of the year Varsity Club sponsors car washes, holds a banquet, and donates various pieces of equipment to the school. New members are admitted to the club in semi-annual initiations, one in the spring and one in the fall.

Varsity Club promotes a high standard of athletics in our school all year round. A Varsity Club member is expected to abide by the training rules of the sport he earned his letter in not only when this sport is in season but through the whole year. In a sense Varsity Club has its own set of training rules. Anyone who violates these rules faces harsh consequences. He may be suspended temporarily or expelled permanently.

Through these strict regulations and fine achievements Varsity Club has earned the respect of all the students of L.H.S.

Choir members and parents combine for singing at the choir banquet.

"The Sound of Music" fills the halls as the Ludington High School Choir, directed by Mr. Irving Prescott, practices every day during fourth hour. The choir, presenting many fine concerts during the year, is a source of pride to the community. The group has attained a high level of achievement for a high school group. The Choir appears on Cadillac W.W.T.V. annually, and sings at the Chicago Temple on its yearly trip to Chicago.

This year, the choir presented a combined concert with the band and sang "The Seven Last Words" in cooperation with the local church choirs for the Easter season.

Each year, the Choir sponsors a line of dances, a spaghetti supper, car-washes, baked goods sales, concerts, and help distribute pamphlets for the local merchants to cover the expenses of the Chicago trip.

Choir officers are George Houk, President; Fred Bernson, Vice-President; Jan Kinney, Treasurer; Mary Ruth Marsh, Secretary

Spanish Club

Although only in its second year, Spanish Club has been a very active organization under the direction of Mr. Ken Tabor.

The goals of the club are to promote better understanding and interest in Spanish and Spanish-speaking countries.

A new project has been undertaken by the club to raise money by sponsoring dances to send one L.H.S. student to Mexico during the summers.

At Christmas, a "Pinata" party is given in accordance to Spanish customs.

Spanish meetings are held on the first Monday of each month at which time there is a business meeting, program, or entertainment, and refreshment period. Various programs of guest speakers and colored slides on Mexico have been presented.

Anyone who is currently taking or has taken Spanish, is welcome to join the club.

Spanish Club officers include—Janice Harper, secretary; Karin Heikkila, president; Christy Johnson, treasurer and Ned Nordine, vice president.

"The glory that was Greece and the grandeur that was "Rome" are recreated in the activities of Junior Classical League. Chariots, banquets, togas, and slave auctions help Latin students to better understand the civilization, art, language, and literature of the Roman people.

Saturnalia, which corresponds with our Christmas season, brings to life the ancient festival of Saturn. A slave auction resembling those commonly held in Rome centuries ago with chariots and real auctioning, initiates new members into J.C.L. Various pageants and plays presented at regular meetings help members to see how the present civilization parallels the ancient one.

Highlighting the year is the Roman style spring banquet. Toga-clad Latin II students are served by Latin I slaves. Only food eaten by the Romans is served.

The Anna Miller Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in Ludington High School to honor students who excel in their scholastic work. Members are selected from the junior and senior class so that membership does not exceed 10 per cent of the junior class and 15 per cent of the senior class.

Leadership, character, and service are three other areas in which a member of the National Honor Society must excel. The entire faculty must recommend a student on these factors with participation both in the classroom and in extra-curricular activities being taken into consideration.

The Society is responsible for the organization of a Junior Honor Society in the Junior High School, and Certificates of Commendation given to freshmen and sophomores. These are given at the awards assembly to stimulate the desire to excel scholastically. The Honor Society also sponsored its third annual Talent Assembly.

Editors

Approximately once a month during the school year, the Oriole Life is distributed throughout the student body. Each issue contains news pertaining to current facts of interest within the school and special features.

Purpose of the newspaper is to promote better sportsmanship and scholarship; knowledge of current school news and activities; an increasing awareness of the value of education; and a growing realization of the importance of the student in a changing world.

The advanced journalism class produces the Oriole Life. Co-editors this year are Bonnie Schauer and Candy Wood; Paul Kolb and Pete Sundholm are sports editors; photographer is Pete Sundholm and the business staff is composed of Mary Bashaw, manager, and Karen Maskal and Patsy Moore.

Considerable reporting for the paper is done by the first-year journalism classes. These students also produce one issue during the school year to gain experience for the following year of advanced journalism.

Oriole Life Staff

Ad Staff

Ad staffs of past and present have had the task of getting advertisements to put in the yearbook and Oriole Life. Through these ads, part of the annual and school paper is financed.

When the deadline for the paper is set, the business manager and staff goes to work. It's their job to determine how many ads are needed. They must, then, go to various stores and businesses throughout Ludington and ask the manager or owner if they would like to place an ad in the school paper (and, or annual). In short they must "sell" themselves to a prospective advertiser. The staff must be at its best when representing Oriole Life and the Annual.

For the paper, the job doesn't end there. The staff must then write up the ads in the little spaces advertisements take up. This is done with either suggestions from the buyer of the ad or with the staff's own ingenuity.

The business staff also works in part with the annual staff. Ads must be obtained for this too. Decisions must be made on how to present these ads and how much page space will be available.

F. H. A.

"Future Homemakers of America — Toward New Horizons", rings the motto of the Future Homemakers Association. The homemaker, filling her role as both wife and mother, is one of the central figures of the American community, and the F.H.A. strives to train her to meet this role well. Here, the girls are supplemented on their classroom work and directed in some of the finer points of gracious living.

Social hours are presented by the club, and this year the hour was given for the Scottville F.H.A. Projects were made and sold for Christmas to finance the social hour.

President Helen Lange acted as hostess for the annual Initiation Tea.

FHA officers include — Sue Scott, secretary; Helen Lange, president; Karen Tanis, treasurer; and front row, Pat Soli, vice-president; and Janice Mitchell, historian.

Y. F. C.

Providing Christian fellowship is one purpose of Y.F.C. Members of the Youth for Christ Club feel that it is "essential for Christian youth to have activity revolving around their faiths and beliefs within the school system."

At the weekly Wednesday meetings held during fifth-hour noon, the members sing and discuss the Bible and problems in religion and conduct. Also, there may be skits, guest speakers, and movies involving a variety of subjects. To fulfill the Y.F.C. motto "Educate in Christ" the members work toward understanding the beliefs of all Christian sects and finding their places in God's world.

Students from all denominations are welcome as members. Attendance is the only membership requirement, and there are no dues.

Members wait patiently as Karen makes last minute preparations before beginning the meeting.

Tri Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y has as its purpose to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character." It is affiliated with the national Y.M.C.A. and is a club for high-school girls.

This organization lives its purpose in its activities and services during the year. In the past years the club has sponsored such things as a Thanksgiving basket for needy families, a party for underprivileged children, selling candy for the March of Dimes, and the annual Winter Whirl.

The club stands for the all-around development of its members — Spirit, mind, and body. Each member should gain something from membership, as well as being of service in the club's different programs.

The club's advisor is Mrs. Virginia Colvin.

Much time and effort went into decorations for this dance.

Coaches for Junior Varsity, Mr. Schierholt and Mr. Mack, get together.

This years Orioles were nothing short of great. Both the varsity and reserve teams came out with winning records in their conference. Coach May of the varsity and coaches Mack and Schierholt did an outstanding job in producing winning football in Ludington. Not only the coaches, but also the players themselves worked hard and took a serious look at winning football. The spirit not only showed up in the players and coaches but also in the fans. The turnout for this years home football games was nothing short of remarkable. There seemed to be a winning feeling all over the town, and when defeat did come, the fans were disappointed by it but continued to show the great sportsmanship, that has helped make our conference the great conference that it is.

What's everyone looking at?

Boys work out energy on volleyballs in phys. ed. class.

Many boys participate in the school's bowling league.

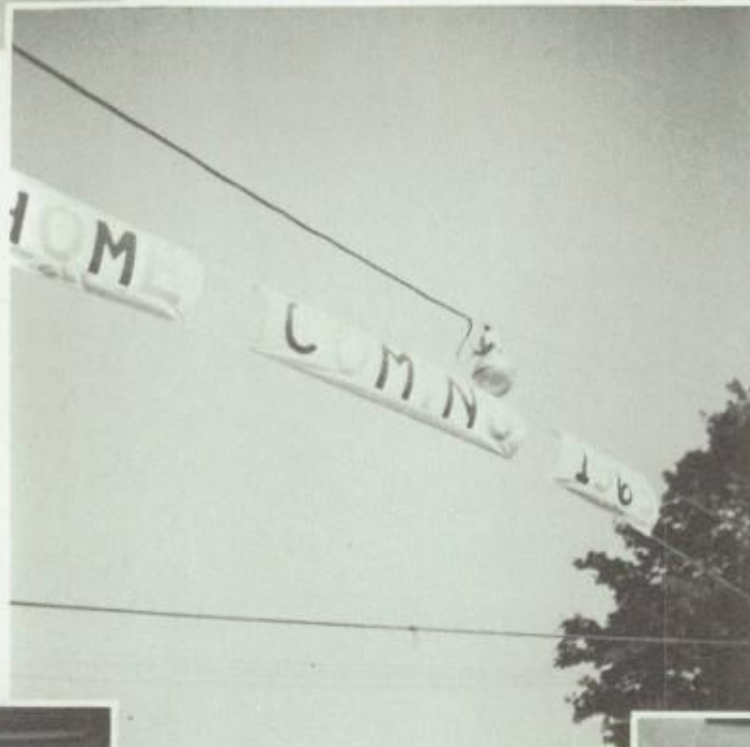

We were hypnotized.

Moments

shared

We selected announcements.

We studied hard.

We gave demonstration speeches.

We led the pep band.

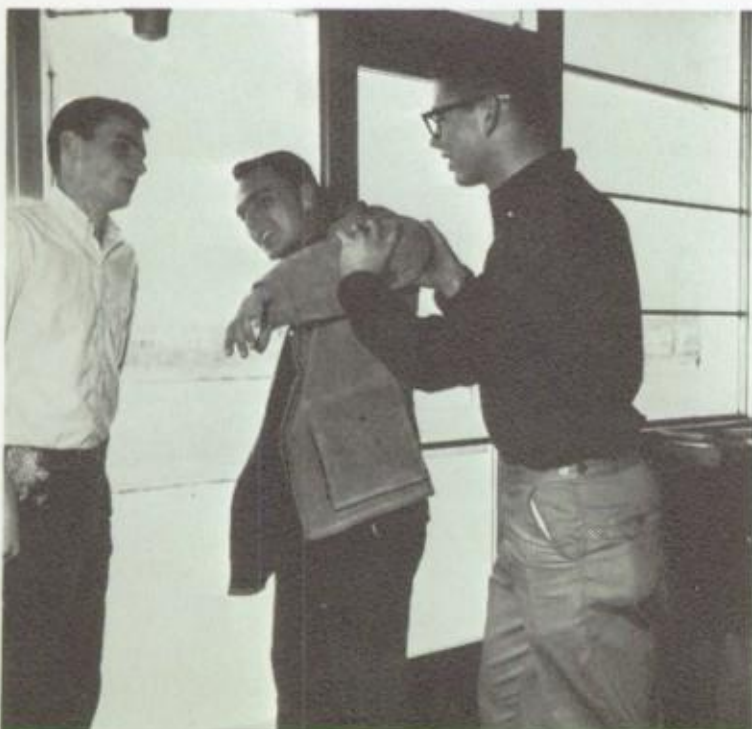

We snitched rolls.

A friendly warning!

We were kind to little animals.

We worked in the shop.

Norm
 I will always remember you in left field where we had a facing game as always on our team. an old friend a pal that lost his glove on Monday and got a token to from me
 Good Luck always
 Les

Norm,
 May you always have the best life has to offer. Don't ever forget algebra
 with Mr. Hiekkilä.
 Be good! But have fun.

To a good kid in track even if you can't high jump.
Have fun or be good
in the future years
a L.H.S.

P.S. Rob alias Toomer
if I fail the test
it's all your fault

Norm,
To a fellow, a lazy bum
like me. One of these days we are going to get caught flipping in class, but I hope not. Best of luck.
